

DELEGATION OF OUTSTANDING HIGHER EDUCATION STUDENTS TO THE EUROPEAN UNION AND UNESCO

Lin Chi Nga, Julia

-Faculty of Law

of University of Macau

2016/6/14

Brussels, Belgium

EU headquarters

Brussels, Belgium

- ◆ We had 8 seminars in EEAS (European External Action Service) for almost two days.
- ◆ including general introduction of the EU, especially the EEAS, and also some updating issues such as the EU migration policy.
- ◆ The relationship between China and EU

EEAS (European External Action Service)

◆ Our meeting room

EU – China, Hong Kong, Macau

- ◆ Political Relations
- ◆ I raised several questions in this kind of seminars as I am really interested in these topics, for instance, what the EU's role is in the One Belt One Road policy of China.
- ◆ The speaker perfectly explained to me and her answer made me understand that there are so many cooperative projects between the EU and China in various ways such as railway construction and other transportation infrastructure.

EU – China, Hong Kong, Macau

- ◆ Trade Relations
- ◆ A possible free trade area between the EU and China is a controversial topic recently, so I raised a question as I wanted to know what the EU's standpoint is on this issue.
- ◆ This speaker clarified a point and also gave justifications – It should proceed in an orderly way and step by step, ruled by law.

EEAS

- ◆ After all these seminars, I was deeply impressed by these professionals because throughout the whole process of our visit, it showed that all of them are practically functioning in the EU.

General information of the EU

- ◆ European Union (EU) is a politico-economic union of 28 member states (going to be 27) that are located primarily in Europe and the EU operates through a system of supranational institutions and intergovernmental-negotiated decisions by the member states,
- ◆ which fully shows that it holds an important position in the whole world and without doubt, it has irreplaceable and inestimable influences not only in Europe, but also in our planet.

Visiting Belgium

- ◆ Belgium's beauty is breathtaking, it's like every moment that your eyes are opened, at the meantime, you are taking photos with them, and which must be masterpieces.
- ◆ People there are sincere and humble, maybe because of the environment there, simple folk, I assume.

Atomium

2016/6/12

Grand Place

Bruges, Belgium

◆ College of Europe

- ◆ This college sounds really attractive to me as they have a course named Master of Law.
- ◆ Bruges is such a seraphic city that gave me an impression that if I study in the College of Europe, my academic environment is an approximate heaven.

Paris, France

◆ UNESCO

General information of UNESCO

- ◆ It contribute to peace and security by promoting international collaboration through educational, scientific and cultural reforms in order to increase universal respect for justice, the rule of law and human rights along with fundamental freedom proclaimed in the United Nations Charter.

General information of UNESCO

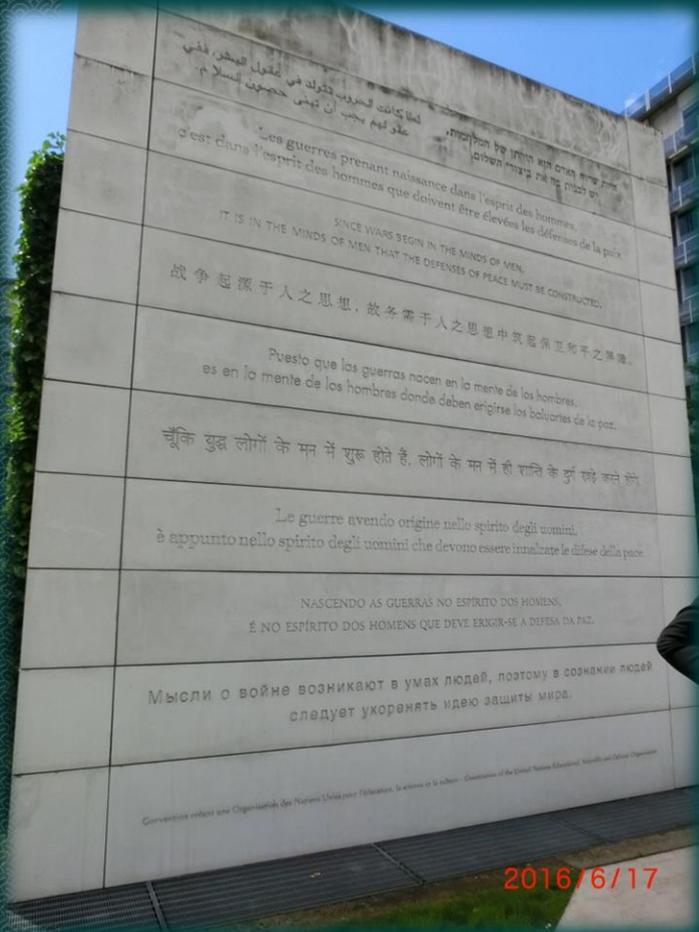

- ◆ At a time when the world is looking for new ways to build peace and sustainable development, people must rely on the power of intelligence to innovate, expand their horizons and sustain the hope of a new humanism.

General information of UNESCO

- ◆ UNESCO's work functions in a significant way especially in a globalized world with interconnected societies and intercultural dialogue is vital if we are to live together while acknowledging our diversity.

Our lunch in the UNESCO canteen

- ◆ A small chat with a Professional who works at the UNESCO
- ◆ Martin Breskvar
 - He is from Slovenia
 - Now working in UNESCO as a professional
 - He is an international lawyer so he works in the legal department of UNESCO
- ◆ I tried to know more about his work there as I am quite interested in working at that place as a legal professional, which fits my specialty.

Our lunch in the UNESCO canteen

Paris, France

- ◆ As for the view of Paris, different from Belgium, it is more classic and elegant instead of being modern.

- ◆ To conclude, this is such a valuable opportunity which enables us to explore the culture, education and economy in Europe which we seldom have chance to get in touch with and all the places that we had visited have intensively broadened my mind.

◆ I would like to express my thanks to Tertiary Education Services Office for giving me this precious opportunity.

◆ Thank you, Iris

For being with us and taking care of us all the time.

◆ Thank you, Karen

For all the preparation work and concern.
